

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

March 5, 2015

Kelowna Heritage Museum, Queensway

5:00-8:00pm

The United Nations' theme for this year's International Women's Day is "Make it Happen." In Kelowna we will be asking a group of panelists: "Make What Happen?" Join us for a discussion about responding to today's most pressing issues through activism and art.

Panelists:

Tannis Nielsen (Creative Studies, UBC Okanagan / Idle No More - Toronto)

Ruthann Lee (Cultural Studies, UBC Okanagan)

Norah Bowman (Chair of Interdisciplinary Studies, Okanagan College)

Robin Whitty (Anti-violence activist / Medical Student, UBC Okanagan)

Lucas Glenn (Visual Artist and Designer / BFA UBC Okanagan)

The panel will be followed by poetry from Melissa Curatolo and a presentation of the Annual Gert Beadle Award

This event is organized by the Inspired Word Cafe and UBC Okanagan's Equity and Inclusion Office, with support from UBCSUO's Women's Resource Centre, the Okanagan College Faculty Association, the Central Okanagan Women's Resource Centre and the Intercultural Society of the Central Okanagan.

It is a free event and open to the public. Light refreshments provided.
